

Support Belarus Digest

Dear Belarus Digest Readers,

We are asking you to support Belarus Digest.

Belarus regime's conduct and poor reputation provides a fertile ground for all kinds of myths and speculations. Belarus Digest tries to de-mystify Belarus and write about what is actually going on in the country.

In addition to our daily analytical pieces published on Belarus Digest, we also offer other publications such as Belarus Foreign Policy Digest, Belarus State TV Digest, State Press Digest and updates on civil society activities and Belarusian analytics.

For over seven years Belarus Digest has been providing balanced coverage of Belarus for an English-language readership. Its popularity is growing. For example, the number of our followers on Twitter has nearly doubled over the last year. Our articles were cited by leading experts from the BBC, Guardian, Foreign Policy, Aljazeera and other reputable media outlets.

We want to keep Belarus Digest free for its readers. For Belarus Digest to continue as a free information resource we need help from our core supporters.

We are offering two options for our readers this year:

- A monthly or yearly contribution to support Belarus Digest (our preferred option – please see paypal button below).
- A one-off payment using Paypal or a credit card following this link (we would appreciate even small contributions).

You can also email us if you want to use other payment methods or want to establish cooperation with us.

Support Belarus Digest now to help the world better understand Belarus.

Sincerely,

Yarik Kryvoi

Editor-in-chief, Belarus Digest

Belarus Digest is a project of the Ostrogorski Centre. The latest annual report of the Ostrogorski Centre is available here.

Donate

