

Victims of Communism Memorial: Wreath Laying Ceremony and Truman-Reagan Medal of Freedom Ceremony

WASHINGTON – Wreath Laying Ceremony and Truman-Reagan Medal of Freedom Ceremony will take place at the Victims of Communism Memorial on June 16, 2009.

A delegation of Belarusian diaspora representing Belarusian-American Association and We Remember Foundation will attend the events and lay flowers to commemorate tens of millions of victims.

Cordially Invites You on

June 16, 2009

to

Wreath Laying Ceremony

The Victims of Communism Memorial - 10:30 - 11:00 AM

International

commemoration ceremony

Wreaths and flowers from around the world ~

Truman-Reagan Medal of Freedom Ceremony

United States Capitol

-12:00 - 2:00 PM Medals

awarded to international heroes of freedom: U.S.

House of Representatives-

Majority Leader Steny

Hoyer U.S. Secretary of

Housing & Urban

Development Jack Kemp

(posthumously) Romanian

Bishop Laszlo Tokes

Complimentary luncheon to follow ~ Launch of the

Online Global Museum on Communism

Reception

at the Romanian

Ambassador's Residence -

6:30 - 8:30 PM Multimedia presentation and

ribbon cutting ceremony

Romanian food, drink and music Ticket donations are requested for this event Individuals $100 /

Couples $175 ~ RSVP by calling 202.536.2373

or emailing

vocmemorial@aol.com